Sarah Crawford says

Midori visits Senbei who is mad about Arale and Gatchan eating a treat he wanted. He is passing the restroom and doesn't know Midori is inside when he is talking to himself and asks her to marry him. She agrees.

From there the story moves on to their honeymoon. Some strange beings kidnap Midori, and Arale and Gatchan want to come on the honeymoon also. Midori ends up tied to posts and a King Kong-type of thing is approaching while Senbei, Arale and Gatchan fight an air force of the strange beings and defeat them.

It turns out the ape is connected with some kid and they plan to cook Midori. They rescue Midori, then accidentally drop her. Arale runs out of energy, but Gatchan is able to beat the kid. The rest of the honeymoon doesn't quite live up to Senbei's expectations, or perverted desires, either.

The next story is about fireworks and the efforts of two aliens to return to their home planet by combining fireworks. Then there's a story about the year 2013. Some of the group plays a game with a large asteroid die and some combat robots.

The next story has Arale losing her head. Literally.

After that, Arale is due to start high school. That is, until Gatchan eats it.

There's a new teacher for the high school (which seems to include the 8th grade.) He has a huge head. Not the best job choice for the guy.
