With All My Heart Barbara Dawson Smith

The piercing shot came out of nowhere. Stunned to see his dueling opponent fall, Lord Joshua Kenyon is even more shocked to discover that his injured foe is a beautiful woman in disguise. But who was that cloaked man fleeing on horseback? And why did he seek to kill Miss Anne Neville? Fearing the answer could be linked to his scandalous past, Joshua vows to learn the truth.

Anne despises the seductive war hero who has proven himself a rouge. Yet with her life at stake, she must join forces with Joshua and enter society to unmask the culprit. Posing as a courting couple will be difficult enough, but dancing with Joshua by candlelight and feeling his string arms against the bare silk of her skin may be impossible for Anne to resist. And against all reason, she finds herself in danger of losing her heart...

No. 3 in the Kenyon Family/Rosebud Series...I am loving this series. There is not only romance, but a good mystery with an ending that will always surprise you. Good job by Ms. Smith. Not only is the story good, but the characters are engaging. So far, this story is my favorite. I was afraid that the adversarial relationship between the H/H was going to get in the way, but all was resolved before it got out of hand. I am looking forward to the last two books of the series! Highly recommend them!

Adequate book. Well written, and read easily. Something about the story didn't grab me...there were places I lost interest.
