This book is a good one! In this book, you might find out sometimes that they have a dog show, but they can't find Sunny (the show dog)! And they need to solve where she went. But where should they look first? Should they look in Dr. Scott's office? Oh yes, that's the right place where she is! The stories of the boxcar children are such funny books. Come read all of the boxcar children books, all the way to #100!

I have read The Boxcar Children Mystery at the Dog Show by Gurtrude Chandler Warner. This is a mystery. I finished it on 8/31/12. What I liked about this book is that it kept me on my heels. There were twists and turns and it was really suspenseful. I would use the words suspenseful, entertaining, amazing, and cool. Yes, I would read more books by this author. I've read 1 more book by this author this quarter. I would recommend this book to anyone who likes teenagers and mysteries.

One of my favorite childhood series. I read over a hundred of them. The first 50 or so were in order; after that I read whatever book I could get my hands on :)

Jennifer Ramirez says

I like this book because it is a mystery book. The children are with their grandfather at the dog show and then they start noticing that dogs are disappearing. I like how they put the clues together to find the thief.

I have long wondered what appeal the boxcar children hold for some people. I have never been into it. I snoozed through it with one of my high students last year, and I decided to try it again. Oy. These kids are so NOT believable!

Mary Ann says

Cute story where the Alden children learn about pure breed dogs and dog shows and the competitive nature of the shows.

Isla says

I love cats and dogs so much!
