Y.??' says

Daisy and Ingrid finally break up!!! Oh and the ending... OF COURSE I CAN'T WAIT TO READ THE NEXT ISSUE.

Lola says

>:)

---

Melissa says

What an ending!

---

Piper says

I never liked Ingrid and I am glad they are over.

The end was unbelievable.

I am not sure if Ingrid did it on purpose but if she did:

What a shitty thing to do to another person let alone someone you supposedly love/d.

---

Sierra the Nerdgirl says

I totally understand how the girls feel about their friendship as my school year is drawing to an end too

---

Elizabeth (Miss Eliza) says

FINALLY! GOODBYE INGRID! May you never darken Daisy's door again. And if you've fucked things up between Daisy and her grandmother, I don't care if you're fictional, I will come to Germany and mess you up!

---

Jenna says

The summary isn't quite accurate. We're wrapping up the year and moving out, but the main focus was on Daisy and Ingrid's relationship, as well as the latter's decision in the previous issue to end things.

Very well done and it was great to see how the trio comes together even at a time when everything is supposed to change. Emotionally, it all hit the right notes and being so long in Daisy's POV helped. There's a wonderful final panel scene of that arc, of Daisy, that could easily be a wallpaper!

Morgan says

HOW IS THIS ALWAYS SO PERFECT?!!

---

solène ? says

I can't wait for the next issue afjslkfhdfkh.

---

Caytie says

I hope we don't see Ingrid anymore! Good riddance and buh bye
