"I Love Christmas" is a short yet charming story about the thought progress the protagonist Gail makes during the Christmas holidays. A quick read revolving around family and love.

J.R. Wirth says

"I Love Christmas," is book one of the Oakville Family Christmas series. It is a good old fashion Christmas story with a close family, adoring characters, and an offbeat romance story. Author, Giulietta M. Spudich, takes the reader on a Christmas adventure— "road trip" style. Gail, is an uptight overprotective mother, and a nurse. Against her better judgement takes her beautiful, perky daughter, Raven, on a trip to her brother's, family's home for the Christmas holiday. Gail's internal dialogue seems to be always on and keeps her forever a skeptic and somewhat suspicious of the intent of others. Can the holiday magic melt away her seemingly cold heart? Take the trip with Gail and Raven and find out in this Sweet Christmas tale.

Marilyn Miles says

Single mom Gail and her teenage daughter Raven, have been invited to spend Christmastime with her brother's in-laws in the small town of Oakville, Ohio. Tired and over-worked from her nursing job, Gail would rather stay home on her vacation and get some rest. But she agrees to the eight-hour drive from their apartment in New York, and week away, for Raven's sake, who seems to have inherited her father's adventurous spirit. And, if she times it right, Gail will still have three days at home to rest when they get back. Unbeknownst to Gail, though, her daughter has invited someone to join them there...someone Gail would rather not see.

Will this hard-working mother and her spirited daughter have the time of their lives this Christmas , or will it turn out to be a disaster? You'll want to read this heart-warming Christmas story and see.

Sweet and Crisp.

Christmas stories are always charming. This one was no exception.

You can never understand the what a single parent goes through until you become one. Handling everything on their own, sometimes they forget that their own life exists. Having nobody else to take care of them but their child, they are only jubilant when the child is full of joy.

Gail is a single mother, parenting her teenage daughter Raven. Both of them are invited to celebrate Christmas at their relative's place. Working as a nurse to support her family, Gail has somehow lost herself. She agrees for this road trip and vacation as her daughter insists. Will this holiday provide an opportunity to Gail to enjoy her life some more?

Quick to read and much more to take home. Warm, heartfelt and lovely read.

Recommended to family drama and YA readers.
