Kimberly says

I love the level reading beginner books, they are fun for the kids to read. My 4 & 5 year old are just beginning to read and they love helping me read it. This story was fun, reminds me a little bit of the fairies from Disney's Sleeping Beauty when they were trying to make her a dress and couldn't make up their minds about the color of the dress. The illustrations were colorful and fun.

Dolly says

Our oldest is a big fan of all things fairy, especially the various seven-book Rainbow Magic fairy series by Daisy Meadows. For children who aren't quite ready for chapter books, this book and others like it (see Rainbow Magic: Best Friends In Fairyland) are great. Our oldest loves them because they are easy, colorful, and include more stories about her beloved fairies. This is a fun birthday story that our oldest read aloud to our youngest.

Siomara says

All the fairies decide to make their friend's birthday a special one. Amber loves the surprises and cuts out a piece of cake and to make just wrote she uses her wand to put even more frosting swirls.
