This is a review for the overall manga BTW!!!

This manga was so entertaining!!! It was funny romantic and just awesome. From the monster fights to the failed attempts to show Hiyo's white crow wings. :D

The characters seemed well thought out and they interacted with each other so well. They made a great manga together.

I like Hiyo's and Kouro's relationship because it was embarrassing, romantic and god-damn funny all together. I love how Kouro is so protective of her. He's kinda cute too (I don't like him like that though). I love how Hiyo eats so much and yet never gets fat (wish that were the same for me LOL)

My favourite guy character is L and my favourite girl character is Omugi(Is that how you spell her name? Is that even her name?(I think it is)).

The manga lasted long enough but I felt that the ending was kinda rushed in a weird way that I can't describe...

Anyway, the manga was awesome and it's shoujo by the way so I'd be impressed if a guy :D reads it because of this review. :D

And yeah, I'm done ehheheh! (I'm Canadian ;D)

When a letter of acceptance comes from SM Academy Hiyoko Osora has no choice but to accept. Even though she did not even take the exam it is the only school she got accepted to. Little does she know everyone at the school is a monster, literally. Now she actually has to live with these various monsters and not only deal with the pains of school but the multitude of creatures as well.

The drawing is wonderful done and even the smutty scenes are exquisite and tasteful. All of the characters have a depth of personality about them and the author effectively is able to dive into the different pasts of the characters creating a complex and well developed world.

A great magna for people that are just stuck in the world and don't seem to fit in with the people around them. There is always a niche for everyone in the world even when someone thinks that they are alone and have no idea which direction they are trying to go. Another one of those massively inspirational mangas for people just looking for a little boost in their own lives. This manga brings about a good life lesson: everyone has problems, there is always a positive way to deal with them.

Series Review: Love Monster was a great and quick manga series. He had very good plot and pacing balancing excitement with humor. The characters draw you in until the plot really takes off and keeps you hooked. Love Monster is definitely a manga worth looking into however I recommend this for more mature audiences as there are adult themes.
