The men are involved in Halloween this year. They are helping the women make a castle with a wicked queen. When the dragonlings overhear, they think a wicked queen is coming to take the babies. The women go on a shopping spree and leave the men in charge of the kids.

Because the dragonlings confuse a story that Cara is telling them with the theme park. They rig up booby traps throughout the nine different areas of the castle to stop the Queen and her minions. The men get to transverse through the traps in order to find the kids before the women return.

This story is hilariously cute!

I adore the dragonlings and Roam and Alice. Morah is going to be a handful too. These shorts are so much fun. I really enjoy watching these little ones grow up. I worry about Phoenix but I probably don't need to since the cousins and friends stick close. I am hopeful that Dulce will be able to make a trip to Earth. Hmm, why are Phoenix and Aikaterina sad and why will Aikaterina be missed?

Dragonflies and Friends Get Into Mischief Again

Fun, fun, fun. This is a hilarious adventure for the toddlers of the Dragon race, Mage race and Cat race of aliens and their human mate's. Not only is it fun but teaches teamwork and friendships between races so when they rule strong bonds will prevent another war.

Be prepared to chuckle

This dragonling story is a quick read with a great deal of the young ones ability to do their best to protect the younger babies. They used problem solving and teamwork with hilarious results. I look forward to their future adventures and pity their poor parents.?

Adorable

I can't stress enough how much I love these kids! They are such a delight and so smart and loyal and simply adorable. They work so well together and are such a team that anyone who goes against the Valdier, Sarafin & Cruzans in the future will be very sorry! The next generation is no joke! There are some very powerful kids in those families & they are so intelligent at such a young age. There might be things they don't understand but that doesn't stop them at all! Can't wait to read the next one!

Another fun wonderful read in Ms Smiths fantastic world of books.

You can read this alone but it is much more enjoyable if you have read this series of books.

The dragonlings are one of the most enjoyable reads ever.

As a huge fan of this author I read all of her books but these little cuties have my heart.

It was lovely to have the twin dragons (Cree and Calo) and Viper play a part in this story as well as their mates and children.

Phoenix's future is becoming a huge question mark and where is Akaterina going?

I hope Dulce finds his mate soon.

I have just discovered my favorite book in the series. It's the equivalent of cotton candy: light, fluffy, completely bad for you, but too much fun to resist. I loved the range of creativity the younglings display. This was the true definition of laugh-out-loud funny. I'm sure many of the people around me while I was reading this must think I've lost my mind. It was a short trip, but well worth it.

Giggles

I'm glad that I read this today as I definitely needed a happy distraction. As always the kids are a hoot and the dads are just a step behind them. Highly recommend.
