Best commentary ever read, I am blessed by reading and want to re read

Ashley says

These commentaries are very comprehensive and never fail to address whatever question is on my mind when I reach for them. Wiersbe uses plain English, not theological jargon, so they're easy for the layperson like me to understand. They're my go-to commentaries.

Sydney (?????) says

If you are looking for a commentary that is easy to follow and unbiased, I recommend to you this. I borrowed this from a friend and thoroughly enjoyed it from the first page. The language used to actual layman speak, not theological rhetoric.

Wiersbe is good at presenting the information in a logical fashion and goes verse by verse. There are sections, too, so if you are looking for a specific chapter, you can find it.

Overall, this is a nice commentary to use for quick Bible studies, or when you just want a reference on something. I don't think it would be useful for 'in-depth' studies; but, it's a solid commentary to begin with and keep around for reminders. :)

(Note: I didn't have the CD with my copies).
