16-year-old Mochizuki Touya continues everyday life in his new world, well aware that it could all come tumbling down at any moment. He's the budding administrator of Babylon, the fledgling grand duke of Brunhild, and now he's a... mecha pilot? Desperate to find a way to halt the incoming Phrase onslaught, Touya makes a mad dash for the Hangar of Babylon, hoping it can give him the edge he needs. What he finds is the Frame Gear, an ancient humanoid fighting machine! Join Touya and his ever-growing band of wives as they tap into their mechanical sides. All systems standby for a tale of swords, sorcery, and oversized wrenches.

Joseph says

Gets better and better with each volume!

The only sad part is that..... I don't have anything to read while I wait for the next volume!! Thank you!!

Eric Warren says

Enjoyable

The story is continuing to get more and more enjoyable. The girls weren't neglected as much and the villains are getting better and the world bigger. The price should be lowered by 2 dollars if you ask me but otherwise good story.

Miles Cahill says

Oh my God loves it

I'm one again writing a great review for this epic book series can't wait to read more of the main character story as the world continues to unfold in front of him. If you looking for something tickle your funny bone the book series is for you. Once again thank you so much for the story Patora Fuyuhara.

Alec Rebert says

Yay!

This series is very enjoyable to me, it's not terribly complex and seems to be overall very lighthearted, but that's what I think i like about it. It's just a enjoyable relaxing read.
