Reign of Ice L.P. Dover

Two courts to four is what needs to be ... to save the land so shall we see.

The scroll has been found and now the fae know how to defeat the dark sorcerer, to end his evil existence in the Land of the Fae. However, the only thing standing in the way is the one bond that must be formed; the one that will empower all four courts together and make them invincible. Ariella and Brayden's bond will not come easily, for Ariella is mischievous and head-strong with a heart full of love, while Brayden is strong and loyal with a heart made of ice.

What do you do when the fate of your land rests upon your shoulders because of the bond you must form to save it? How are you supposed to do that when the one man to help you fulfill the prophecy is the one who doesn't believe in love?

With all four princesses bound together as one, will they be strong enough to save the life of Ariella, who is destined to be the one who ends it, the one who will sacrifice everything to save the people she loves? In this final installment of the Forever Fae series you will see how the bonds of love and all the sacrifices it takes to truly conquer the evil once and for all.

well everyone...this was the last of the Fae series. I am saddened to say goodbye to them. I do hope for more somewhere....lol.

I must say that THIS one as awesome as the first 3 were, THIS was my favorite book of all. I LOVE Brayden and Ariella! <3 the Fae Couple of Swoonville. *sighs*

Ariella must finish this once and for all. She has powers she needs to come into. However Alasdair is a tricky one. Can Ariella do it? Or will she have to sacrifice lives? Maybe Alasdair finally has the weapon he needs to take over. *shivers*

Just an FYI there are some pretty steamy scenes....

*BRAYDEN IS MINE!***

I cried. Like snot on sleeve type of cry. An unpretty cry of all sorts.

Miss Dover: you have captured my heart from the first book and you shattered it along the way, mended it back together, just to shatter it all over again.

You are a genius. An evil one but hey. That's your job.

Just, yes!

This is absolutely my favourite of the series. (Move over Summer of Frost lol, though I do still love ya!) The writing has just gotten better and better, and the character's more colourful and endearing. I love Ariella and Bray, and the twist on their personal story. I love how we get history of the motherly feud. I love the sass and the bull headedness. I just purely enjoyed the closure to this series, it was a fun (and sometimes cheeky) ride.

Thank you for letting me read! I received this book from the author in exchange for an honest review. (LoP r2r)

I have loved L. P. Dovers books since the first one that I have read. Reign of Ice is one of her best so far.

It moved along at a great pace, from beginning to end, I finished it in one sitting and needed more. The characters are amazing and the story is awesome.

L. P. Dover has created an amazing world, that once you enter you have an extremely hard time leaving. I am looking forward to reading more from this fantastic author in the future.

I have to say that L.P. Dover knows how to end a series! Each book in this series was better than the first.... I have to say I loved watching this series grow and come to a complete circle.

This is my favorite book in the Fea series! The connection with Brayden and Ariella how it started with such tension and dislike for each other yet they had the connection, the bond, the Vision. I loved these characters the best I think, they were so unlike the others with their connection, fighting the inevitable.

This story was different than the others and I think just perfect. L.P took us on an adventure through the land of the Fea and added elements that just made this the most unique of the series.

Brayden and Ariella both strong willed characters were just perfect for each other. I so enjoyed watching their lives and relationship grow in this story. I Love how L.P. knows how to paint a picture with her words to make it feel like you are in the land of the Fea with her and her characters. I could picture myself standing in the Winter Ice land and seeing it sparkle from the sunlight shining on the ice.

I admit I am sad that the Fea series is complete but I am sooooo excited to know that there is another Fea series coming from this amazing author. Where will she bring us on the next Fea adventure?? I can't wait !!

Reading Reign of Ice felt like Homecoming, a lot of the characters that you learned to love from the first three books are reunited in some way and it's almost magical to read. I love reading LP Dover's books, she never ceases to amaze me with her writing. The detail is so vivid, the imagination that goes into these stories are epic. If you loved The Fae Series by Julie Kagawa you will absolutely adore the Forever Fae Series. Reading this one was kind of bittersweet knowing it's the last of this series, however LP has assured me she will be doing a spin off series. I know I have said before each one was my fave but there was something about Brayden that I felt like I could connect with his character so much more than any of the others, maybe it was the issues he had with his feelings, I don't know. Reign of Ice left me with a book high as have all the books in Forever Fae, only difference being this one will last a bit longer since there is no next chapter. I can't say enough about this series, except read it for yourself and see what the excitement is about, I promise you will not be disappointed.

Favorite Lines “Of all the princes I was to be bound to ... why did it have to be the one that knew nothing about love, or even how to smile for that matter?”

“From now on, you are not leaving my sight. If we have to fight, we fight together. We are in this as one.”

With my heart tired and bruised, I gazed up at him with a newfound strength. Maybe he wouldn't be too difficult to deal with after all. “And that's how it should be,” I told him. “I will always fight for my people, for my court ... and for you.”

Always ...”

“I need to hear you say it, Brayden,” I murmured tenderly.

He wiped away the tears in my eyes and whispered across my lips, “I love you, angel. No matter what happens and what challenges we face, I will always be there with you. In your mind, body, and soul, you will never be alone.”

“You will be my mate, my queen, and my wife and there's nothing in this realm that I want more than that. I bond myself to you, angel, and from here on out you will always be mine ... forever and always. Freely and with no reservations, I give you my body, my soul, and most importantly my heart. Amin mela lle ilyamemie ar' ten' oio.”

“I need you to promise me something. Promise me that no matter what happens in our future or how you think you are protecting me that you will never try to run off and save us again. We are one now ... a solid bond that will always be stronger together. I can't lose you again, angel. I don't want to ever know that kind of suffering again.”

Ok I know I went a little over board with my favorite lines but, OMG this was the perfect ending to a FAE FABULOUS series! Ariella is the last princess of the prophecy and she is mated to Brayden, who is a prince of winter and really guards his feelings and his heart! When he finds out they are mated he leaves her standing in the middle of everyone without another word. Ariella is so embarrassed and heart broken but, she will do whatever needs to be done to save the land of Fae from that crazy creep the Dark Sorcerer! Even binding herself to someone who has no emotion or feelings. Eecckkk I want to blast it from the rooftops what happens but, I won't because you have got to read this! L.P. Dover as always gave me everything I want and need to make a story perfect! I read it in 2 hrs. Once I started I could do nothing else, no one could get my attention and I loved every page!

I'm also sooo thrilled she will be doing a spinoff! I am praying for a series!

Thank you for writing an amazing 4 part series! She ended it beautifully!

Out of every single gift in the world, love was the most powerful. I just wished it was strong enough to save the Land of the Fae.

I received an arc of this book for an honest review*

WOW!!!! L.P. Dover couldn't have ended this series any better. I loved every second of this book. The Forever Fae series is one of my favorite Fae series and I hate that its over, but I am very excited for the spin off series The Land of the Fae :)

I love all the couples, from all four books for different reasons. Ariella and Brayden just go so well together. They are the youngest of the Four. Brayden at the beginning is very shy, and isn't someone that shows his feelings and emotions and doesn't talk about them. Ariella has always been a prankster and likes to have fun. At first, she just wanted to be with Brayden so they could defeat the sorcerer, but over time they both start getting really strong feelings for each other. And my FAVORITE thing in the whole book, that makes it so much more different than the others in this series, is *SPOILER ALERT* Brayden becomes Ariella's guardian. And that just made me love their relationship even more!!!

This book kept me on the edge of my seat, the ending I was just not expecting that at all!! It's enchanting, sexy, mysterious. It is a MUST READ series. :)

Brayden oh boy did I love that man, I love all of Leslie's men but Brayden he had balls, "first off, Princess, I may be complicated but I'm not the type of man to spill out my feelings like a damn female, especially in front of others. And about the women you speak of, I haven't indulged in a woman's touch since before I met you at the Winter palace. I know I walked away from you after the vision and I apologized for that. It was a mistake on my part and I asked for your forgiveness. I did what I did tonight to win back your trust and mend what I had broken. " But even though he has balls he still has this special connection with Ariella and he does things that make my heart pitter-pat, "as soon as we get to our place I'm all yours. You can talk to me as long as you want, angel." And he just has this way about him you can't help but love, "he lifted his eyebrows slyly and smirked. "yeah, I don't think we should either, considering what you had going through your mind. I see you aren't going to make things easy for me, are you? If you didn't want to be with me then why were you thinking about -" I can't wait to see the next part in the series about where the kids are all grown up.

Marie says

This is my favorite book of the series, not that I didn't love the other books but I think it's because every character in this series was united in this book and each was involved somehow. I have fell in love with each character, but Ariella & Brayden are my favorite couple!!! They are both equally stubborn and want to protect each other and the Land of the Fae. As far as my favorite male character, Drake WAS it for me, he was different, I mean a dragon C'mon WOW!!! LP won me over with bringing Brayden into the Fae world. Every time Ariella walked away, I filled her space.!!! (Shhhhh, please don't tell)

This book brought the four courts together. Since they now know how and who has to defeat the dark sorcerer, it only makes it that much harder for Ariella to become bonded with Brayden!!! (I'll do it ; ) )

This book shows the love, strength and unity they have that is needed in order to rid the dark sorcerer and his evil.

I hate to see this series come to an end, but what a FREAKIN' epic ending it was!!!

Reign of Ice. Ah, what can I say. This book is my favorite. I absolutely loved them all, but hands down, this one takes the cake. L.P. Dover's writing is top notch. This story line is so well thought out and planned, and it makes for a gripping ride that definitely left me on the edge of my seat and holding a box of tissues at the same time.

I definitely love the chemistry between Ariella and Brayden because these two definitely give each other a run for their money. They are stubborn, independent, but somehow, they have to find a way to come together, for the sake of their land. That's a very hard thing to do when Brayden has no interest in being in love, he truly is the ice in this story, but Ariella can definitely be cold too. They have surely become my favorite Fae couple.

I cannot wait to see where L.P. takes the series next. The end of this Fae series opens so many more doors and more magic is sure to be waiting for us on the other side of them.

If you are looking for a great series, start with Forever Fae and continue on. You will not be disappointed!

Holy wow this book was amazing! I couldn't have asked for a better end to this series. If it's possible, this was better than the other three. The one thing I really loved and appreciated about this one is how Ms. Dover brought all the characters together, and each had their own role to play, but the book still focused on Ariella. You are quickly swept back into the world of Fae; a world filled with such amazing detail that the scenes jump right off the page. Ms. Dover sucked me into this series with her great writing in Forever Fae, but her writing is even more amazing in this one. She has a true talent for writing, and I can't wait to see what she writes next.

The characters, Ariella and Brayden, are awesome. Ariella was a strong, brave female lead, but also extremely relatable. I loved that she didn't back down from a challenge, and that she never gave up. She found her own solutions to the problems that are plaguing the Fae world, and fought until the very end. I quickly fell in love with Brayden, and there was something more with his character in this one. I don't exactly know what it was, but I felt his character had more depth and was more relatable than the other men in this series. This was written in dual POV, but it's mostly from Ariella's perspective. I did wish there were a couple more chapters from Brayden's POV because I really loved his character, but I absolutely loved Ariella's POV.

The action in this book was non-stop, and expertly written. We were left guessing until the very end of what would happen, and at one point I was literally freaking out. But don't worry because Ms. Dover makes everything work out in the end. My heart was breaking, but was quickly mended. The ending was beautiful, and even though this was the last of this series, it's not the last time we'll visit the Fae world. That's right...there's a spin-off series!!! So even though we're saying goodbye to these characters, we have much more to look forward to.

I highly recommend this series for anyone who is a fan of faeries, action, adventure, and romance. This has a bit of everything for everyone, and is a must read. Check this series out now! Happy reading :)

All of the characters from the first three stories are together for the four and final book. Ariella and Brayden overcome stubbornness, pride and immaturity to complete and create the final court. This challenge doesn't come easy and puts many lives in danger, claiming others. The Ariella and Brayden that open this story are not the same Ariella and Brayden that end it. Their transformation and growth is significant.

The author of this book said it was her favorite of the four and I absolutely agree. I thoroughly enjoyed all four books but this one definitely takes the cake. I have to give her major kudos for her writing style and plot. I was highly entertained the entire extent of this story. Her characters were strong and likable.

My only criticism, and I know many will disagree, is the ending. If she stopped at chapter forty-one and then added a "five years later" chapter the entire series would have felt very real. The surprise ending just turned it from raw, real and painful to fantastical and fairytail-ish. I would have liked to see a real ending over a happily ever after for this intricate of a story. However, I loved it nonetheless and highly recommend it to romance and paranormal lovers everywhere!

Amazing! Fantastic! Awesome! Perfect!

This is by far my favorite out of all the Forever Fae books! Ariella is stubborn and funny as hell. Brayden starts out stubborn as well but he gets better (I was ready to hit him in the head with a frying pan in the beginning) Perfect ending to the series & it's one that I know will be in my Top 5 favorite books of all time!!! LP Dover's writing gets better and better with each book she releases. Now we just need Forever Fae movies (only if L.P. gets to choose the cast and it's kept to the books)

Jamie Ayala says

So sad to see this series come to an end. But it was a spectacular ending that had me smiling and crying while reading the last page!!! I wish I could be part of the winter court with pale, silvery skin!! I love Ariella & Brayden just as much as all the other couples in the rest of the series. They all have such great love for each other and their land and people. Wish the "real world" mortal realm could be that way. I'm so happy I started reading this great series of books, they are a definite treasure. I will be anxiously waiting for the next series. Thank you L.P. for these amazing gifts you have brought into the world.

Jessica says

I love this series and I loved this book! I loved how different Brayden and Ariella seemed to be at the beginning, when in reality they were perfect for one another. I enjoyed the camaraderie between all the court leaders and other important fae players, like Elvena. You can feel the love they all have for one another and their determination to protect each other and their people and land. But with the camaraderie, love and determination, you can also feel the tension and fear that is hanging over them all because of the impending war with the dark sorcerer.

I thought Dover did a good job of tying up the loose ends and giving the story a good ending, but leaving it open-ended enough for the new spinoff series. I didn't feel cheated out of answers like some series endings that I have read in the past. There were also a couple of twists that I didn't see coming that I enjoyed.

I highly recommend this book and this series to anyone looking for a fun, exciting NA fantasy romance!
