I can write a similar story to it

Very easy and reading comprehension for beginners

Nazanin Albk says

It is good. I'm so glad to start reading English books. Even if the books are so simple. Starting off is very important.

Frederico Gomes says

good.....

Khaleefa Al Hammadi says

April Fox works for the British Dance company as a dancer. On Monday morning, she saw her boss Maria Grant at a coffee machine and she told April that "I've got a some good news, wait and you will see". After the dancing class, Maria told dancers that I've got invitation for us to dance in Moscow next month. Six weeks later, April's parents took her into Heathrow Airport in London because it was time to go to Moscow. On the plane April and her friends (Laura) talked about Moscow and what they wanted to do there. The next day the dancers worked very hard because they danced for the festival, Green Oceans more than two hours. The day after, April met a new friend Nikolai and he invited April to go on a trip to the country. The next day, April had a nice time with her new friend Nikolai and she went boating with him. The next day, April was tired and sad because she thought when could she meet Nikolai again. Fortunately, they did very well in a dance show and the audience was very happy. Twenty-four hours later, April was at Moscow airport because she would go back to her country. She was very sad because she didn't have Nikolai's address and she did not know how to contact him again. Suddenly, she heard someone was calling her and when she turned, it was Nikolai and he gave her a small box. On the plan, she opened the box and she saw a letter with a small gift. When she looked at the letter, she became very happy because he told her that he would come to see her in England.
