The Rancher's Baby Proposal Barbara White Daille

HER SECRET COWBOY CRUSH

Ally Martinez has always been known as a fun and flirty kind of gal. But deep down she's never forgotten the cowboy who left town. When her crush Reagan Chase comes home after a seven-year absence, Ally knows this is her big chance. The guy I've always wanted. Only Reagan has something different in mind...

Still reeling from his last relationship, Reagan needs a babysitter for his month-old son. With Ally's help, he can get his family's ranch ready for sale and get out of Cowboy Creek. The problem? Ally is one seriously cute distraction. But Reagan will do whatever it takes to keep his heart safe. Even if it means losing the only place—and the only woman—he can call home.

A book with a single dad always grabs my attention so I couldn't resist The Rancher's Baby Proposal. It broke my heart to hear Reagan's girlfriend didn't want the baby or him. Of course, he doesn't want another relationship after that. But he does need a babysitter while he's getting the ranch ready to sell. He thinks Ally would be perfect for the job. She's not too happy about taking the babysitting job for two reasons. She's convinced kids hate her and she's always loved Reagan but he clearly doesn't see her the same way.

I enjoyed this romance and liked the characters. Reagan, not so much at first, but when I found out about the things life threw at him and all his regrets, my feelings for him changed. While Ally was fun and flirty she didn't think much of herself. And kids didn't hate her, at least Reagan's baby didn't.

I recommend this sweet romance.

The Rancher's Baby Proposal is number six of The Hitching Post Hotel by Barbara White Daille. Reagan Chase returns to his home town to get his parents ranch ready to sell. He doesn't want to have feelings for any woman after the girl he was dating got pregnant and didn't want the baby. Reagan paid for the pregnant and at the end the girl signed over all legal rights of the baby boy, Sean to Reagan. Reagan hires Ally Martinez to babysit Sean while he is getting the Ranch ready to sell. Ally has always loved Reagan. Reagan is three years older than Ally and didn't think of her in a romantic way. Things can change. A good romance read.
