One Spark of Magic Iris Bolling

A dream leads dancer Paige Cartwright to a plane ride that will change her life. The man in the seat across from her sent a spark through her heart. It was him. She knew it without a doubt. She knew her grand mere's dream had sent her to meet the man she was to marry.

Jarrett Bryson is a star. Not just on the baseball field, but in life as well. He has it all, money, fame, and women. Yet, there was something about the woman in the seat across from him.

Love and laughter enter their lives, but jealousy rears its ugly head in ways neither anticipates. Will Jarrett and Paige survive? It all comes down to One Spark of Magic.

Hear the Voices

The first two chapters for me were strike outs, but when that grand slam was in in the middle of chapter three. My, my, my, the drama, mystery, intrigue, and love had me going. Every couple needs an angel Jarrett and Paige had three. Loved the fairytale ending. Hopefully there is a story on Victoria and Sergio coming soon, or may be a movie.

"One Spark Of Magic" was a excellent read. Iris never disappoints. Grand'Mere was a force to be reckoned with. She did not play. Loved the carefree nature of Paige. She saw the good in everyone. Jarrett's love for baseball was excellent. It was nice to read about Nicolas Brooks and Jason Whitfield. Even when Paige was in danger she didn't realize it and she still had a no nonsense attitude, believed there was good in everybody. Loved the back and forth with Paige's Dad and Grand'Mere. Suzette was a hot mess she used Lacy to and Lacy lost in the end. Will Ron her husband stay or will he leave. Wouldn't want to tangle with Jolen you just might end of dead. Loved Victoria and Sergio.

Hopefully we will get a book on Victoria and Sergio, and Faith, Autumn Jarrett's sisters.

Magic

This book was filled with enough love to last a life time. No matter how much planning this couple was destined to be together. Grand'Mere and Harold's bickering kept me on the edge of my seat. Iris did a great job with this romantic suspense story that I am anticipating the next release

This romance novel from Iris Bolling doesn't have the political theme that most of her novels have, but it does stay true to form. Her style is to tell a story from beginning to end, that is well thought out, well written and well executed. And that she does, in a story about a romance that appears to be destined to happen between an unlikely pair. Follow the story of a professional athlete and a professional ballet dancer from two different worlds, to find out if there is a happy ever after.

this was a sweet holiday read, I really enjoyed this couple.

Paige and Jarrett are DESTINED to be together...but with so many obstacles thrown in their path will they find their HEA or will they allow the DRAMA in their lives to KEEP them from experiencing what could be a BEAUTIFUL relationship...a SWEET and endearing read...but it didn't have the usual SMOOTH Iris Bolling flow IMHO...I was surprised w/the editing issues throughout...something I've not experienced in her other books...but OVERALL it was still a decent read...and I hope we get some follow up stories on a few of the secondary cast of characters.

That One Spark

Jarrett found a true gem when Paige entered that plane. A heart so open and true would have to endure much to bloom! This journey is especially heartening!

OMG!!!! Where do I start

Let me start by saying Iris is one of my favorite authors. Every book she release is a hit and this one was no different. Paige and Jarrett ate one of my favorite couples. This story had love, drama (Suzette and Jolie) , crazy (Lucy), it was funny (Grand'mere), real friends (Ron, Victoria and Sergio) and the rest of the aspiring cat was great. I see a potential story with Ron and the security lady. Can't wait. This is a must read tho. I love it, love it, love it. Would definitely recommend.

The author made this one worth the wait. Iris Bolling penned an awesome love story in the mist of mayhem. It was full of emotions: jealousy, love, joy, anger and forgiveness. I laughed every time they said quotes that I have used often.

Jarrett and Paige had a believable love story that was bonded by a spiritual connection. It reminded me of “What God has joined together, let no one separate”...and it was attempted. As much as they wanted to plan their life, it had a way of surprising them with unexpected things that made them happier than they originally planned.

I loved how the author included characters from previous titles and some new ones that I believe we will see more of.

“WELL THERE YOU GO!” A Must Have!

Love is in the air!

I loved Paige and Jarrett's story. It was so touching full of romance and just enough suspense. Iris has done it again. I would love to see Victoria and Sergio have a story. Never can tell. Overall a very good read!

Jackie Brown says

Old fashion love!!!!

If you r looking for a true old fashion love story... This is it!! Completely!! The grand'mere is wonderful!!! Her character is priceless!! I loved this book!! I didn't want it to end!!!

Lillian Walcott-Milton says

True Love

I enjoyed the family dynamics especially with Horase and Paige's grandmother. The magic of love with Jarrett and Paige plus the comedy and drama with their friends was fun and a lovely read.

My heart!

The love seeping through the words in this book makes me long for a love like this!! I read this book with either the biggest smile on my face or through tears....the sweetest romance story I've read in a while!!

Jarrett and Paige are my new power couple!

Myisha says

It was a nice read fairy tail...ish. At times Paige got on my nerves because everything was so happy go lucky yadda yadda yadda, she just wasn't my type of heroine. I did like Grand' mere loved her story even more, it would make a good book I also loved the funny banter between her and Harold.
Overall a nice sweet romance type of read.

Toni Jay says

Beautiful Love Story

I could not put this book down. It was everything and more. I hope Ron and Victoria both get their stories told as well.
