Jaxon smooth talked his lover into taking a Mediterranean cruise vacation. Brad wasn't the best of travelers, but with any luck the trip would help rekindle the dwindling spark in their sex life. Nothing else had worked.

Luke had two good reasons for tagging along on his friend's vacation. He was envious of the love the two hunky men shared, and he harbored a secret fantasy of drawing them into a ménage.

Never in their wildest dreams could the trio have anticipated their shore excursion turning into a highly erotic dream. A dare, a wish and a taunt lead to an amazing encounter none of them will ever forget.

To be honest, I would have preferred the focus to be on Jaxon and Brad re-establishing their connection rather than the fantasy angle, but the sex was hot and I didn't roll my eyes too hard at the statue coming to life like a well endowed genie to grant their every wish (then trick one of them in the throes of orgasm to return with him to wherever he came from). Hot and sexy!
