Code Word Storm Sydney Croft

Also included in the Mammoth Book of Special Ops Romance.

Also included in Deadly Desires 2 in 1 with Shiloh Walker.

The extremely secret Agency for Covert Rare Operatives is the only thing that stands between the human race and complete chaos. Now, two agents with special abilities, Annika Svenson and Creed McCabe, are sent to stop a man who has harnessed the power of the supernatural world.

But Creed and Annika have a history that puts them at odds -- and in closer, hotter contact than they'd like. In this ACRO story, which falls in the series timeline between Riding the Storm and Unleashing the Storm, Annika and Creed grow closer, despite their resistance. And with their lives on the line, they find they must not only work together, but be together, or risk a terrifying fate that could consume them both...

Hardwell-Spaceman

Joni Stevens says

Read as a 2.5 story not 4.5.

Greeneyes Belle28 says

Really Good

Margie Consorte says

Normally, I am not a huge fan of short stories. They tend to feel rushed. In this, we follow Ani and Creed on one short mission. It was short but fun.

Rating~ 3 stars.

I thought this would end in HEA but it didnt. It was HFN.

TinaMarie says

agents with special powers work to take out villian who has unleashed demons to protect himself. I didn't really care for the story, but it was well done.

Took me about 15minutes to read this short story. But I love Creed and Annika so I just had to read it. Felt more like an outtake than an actual story. But yeah 4 stars because I love them. And yes they had sex in a haunted mansion full of demons. I know so weird but I'm used to this world now ... Hahahha. Will it even be part of the ACRO series without sex in stupid insane places, and "mind blowing amazing sex".... yeah I Can't believe I'm reading this whole series.... but there's something "addictive" about it. :)
