Really enjoyed the story until the end. Leo and Evita was cheesy. But I can get over that to figure out what happens....

Linda Anders says

Loved this series of 3 books which lead the reader from discovering Biblical prophecies to seeing them fulfilled. Dan-Brown-like but completely different, also.

I borrowed the first book (Secret Chapel) using my Amazon Prime at the end of the month; a few days later, was able to borrow the 2nd book (House of Acerbi). Loved them so much that I instantly purchased the 3rd book (Dark Ruin). Even though I got the first 2 free, I would have bought them if I had known they were so good (and I'm cheap when it comes to buying e-books!).

Definitely recommend that everyone read the 3 books in order due to character development and situations. Outstanding series! Comments from readers indicate there is a 4th and final book in the works. If so, it will be a must read for me.

The series just keeps getting better as the story and the characters progress through the turbulent times of the new world order. Kept me wondering how the book and the story would play out as the characters narrowly escape with their lives from the dark evil which has taken over the lands, nations and the governments of the world. The author is amazing in the use of history and his way of staying one step ahead of the reader and keeping us mesmerized by the plots and subplots. Extremely interesting.

Learned Alot

I was drawn to this book because of its theme, and I was curious to see how they would portray the end times. I was disappointed that the book ended without that detail. Overall I enjoyed the book..Learned a lot about the history of the Cathars, learned about cities in the middle east and the workings of the Catholic church. I enjoy reading and my main purpose for reading is to increase knowledge. I learned a lot from reading this book

Humanity's existence is threatened!

Good vs Evil, Cardinal Leo continues to lead the fight against dark enemies. This plot is truly terrifying, because its a realistic threat that could topple nations and recreate the reigns of any of these monsters from our history : Hitler, Pol Pot, Mao Tse- tung, Stalin, and Lenin.

I love, love, love this series. Once I started this book, I hated to put it down. I have a suspicion that Marcus is not dead. We'll see over the next one or two books, I'm sure. I can only hope that, like Father Morelli, his "death" was necessary to accomplish an objective.

Dana Clarke says
