A girl shares her love for all things PINK—pink clothes, pink pillows, pink pets?—in this imaginative early reader. Fans of Pinkalicious will relate!

A little girl wishes everything in her world could be pink . . . including her dog, her cat, and her hamster. Wait! How will she ever find her pink pets in her all-pink bedroom? This simple story perfectly—and humorously—illustrates the old adage “Be careful what you wish for!”

Step 1 Readers feature big type and easy words for children who know the alphabet and are eager to begin reading. Rhyme and rhythmic text paired with picture clues help children decode the story.

From the Trade Paperback edition.

I love this book so much because it is the only one my reluctant-to-read daughter gets excited to read out loud to me. We have checked the book out of the library twice and renewed it the maximum three times you are allowed both times before returning it. And I will probably look for it again the next time I am there. Thank you, Francis Gilbert.
