Star Pupil Rochelle Paige

Griffin Stone isn't known for his patience, but he manages to endure the three months until Avery Rose's eighteenth birthday to pursue her. The hot teacher has a plan...

Step 1: Get close to Avery by replacing her set teacher.

Step 2: Make the gorgeous young actress fall for him—just like he'd done with her at first sight from across the studio lot.

Step 3: Teach her the most important lesson of all—that she belongs with him.

Warning: The sweet story might be short, but it has plenty of sexiness and an alpha male who will do whatever it takes to get his woman.

Please note: Star Pupil was previously published in the Hot For Teacher anthology.

5+++ stars

I'm not really into Hollywood stories, actor/actress because in some stories, the actor/actress has to make a scene with a co-star like a kissing scene or worse, a sex scene but I'm glad nothing like that happened in the book and the focus is more about the H and h's relationship. And I love it! Just perfect! It's so good I didn't want it to end.

The story is about Griffin and Avery.

Griffin has his own company, Stone Studio Teachers. Avery is a new actress and it's her first lead role and first movie. She's not legal yet the first time he saw her. He waited three long months to have her and make her his.

Griffin is the perfect hero. Avery is a very likable heroine. The story is sweet with an epilogue (view spoiler). I love it!

Another sexy and short novella type story by Rochelle Paige. Griffin Stone finds the love of his life the minute he sets eyes on Avery Rose but the only problem is he cannot claim her for a few months. Reason- she isn't 18 yet. From the day he sets his eyes on her she is on set of the movie she is a lead actress in and the movie his company is contracted to provide set teachers to all the minors. Griffin comes up with a plan that allows him near his dream woman and allows him to keep his eye on her while he bides his time.

Avery Rose is a beautiful and sweet young woman who is very trusting and is also being controlled by her mother. She does what her mother says but she values her education and so she has been in between a rock and a hard place , for she hasn't had anyone but her mother. Until him- Griffin . He is handsome and so charming. He is also 10 years older than her and her new set teacher. She falls for him but thinks she doesn't have a chance with this learned and handsome man...if she only knew what Griffin has planned for her. This is a sweet and beautiful insta-love story that the author has written for this couple. There is a villain, you have the older man and young woman and the sexual tension/heat is thru the roof. I loved the ending and epilogue. This is my type of story and I cannot wait to see what Ms. Paige has next for us.

Rosalie's review:

Griffin Stone knows the minute he sets eyes on Avery Rose that he has to have her. Knowing that she is a few months shy of 18 only puts his plan on hold, but certainly not indefinitely. From the day he sets his eyes on her on set of the movie she is a lead actress in (and his Teaching company has been contracted to provide education to all minors on set the required number of days), he knows exactly what he needs to do to make her his...only to bide his time.

Avery Rose is a naive teenager that loves education. Her mom pushes her into acting, not wanting her to pursue her education; and all she has in her life is her mom, so for now, she will listen to her. Until Griffin comes along. But how could someone so gorgeous, and 10 years older than her, have any interest in her? She's only 18 and she probably doesn't compare to the women he has or is dating! If only she knew...

Ms.Paige weaved a story in this one. I wanted for Griffin to do whatever in his power to win Avery over from the beginning. I love inst-connection/love and this novella set this up nicely. The angst kept me on my toes and the chemistry between them, and the way the scenes were so intricately detailed, kept me HOT! Again, Ms. Paige's books never fail to deliver, and Star Pupil is no exception!

These 2 were adorably sweet. Griffen sees Avery at a movie shoot and knows she is the one right away (adore the insta-love stories). He has to wait for awhile, until she turns eighteen, to make is move but he knows she is his forever.

When she has her birthday, he becomes her on set teacher to help her prep for college. He is so good and patient with her that is just sweet and adorable. I loved how he spent time with her before he really made his intentions known. Her mom was a bit of a "thorn" but he took care of her....which is good because as a mother....she really didn't make the cut.

This is a sweet must read....you will fall in love with these two.

Rochelle Paige sure knows how to sweep me off my feet with her words. Whether they are ultra hot or sweet, she continues to be a go to author for me. And this latest standalone novella is nothing short insta-everything perfection.

Star Pupil is a quick, dirty and deliciously over the top romance that will melt your kindle and leave you in a puddle. This book made me swoon, laugh, smile and fall head over heels in love.

If you need something to tickle your pickle then this is for you.

I highly recommend this book.

The story has laughs, insta-love and steam. I was pulled right into this super short story.

This is Avery and Griffin's story. This is a hot read. Griffin knows what he wants and makes a plan. He will get Avery. He has waiting until he thinks she is ready now he needs to claim her. He needs to teach her he is the only one for her and get her to fall for him. Can he pull it off? Can he get the one he wants? Will she love him back?

I highly recommend this story.

Star Pupil

Griffin sees Avery on the set of her new movie for the first time. He knows instantly that he will do everything to make her his. He just now has to wait until she turns 18.

On Avery's Birthday, that is the first time that she meets Griffin. Instantly drawn to him but she doesn't think he feels the same way since he is older than her and her teacher.

As the truth comes out and she gets to know him more, she knows that she's found her forever. If only she can get her mother on board and not control her whole life.

-safe Read

-h is virgin

-H not talk about his history

-epilogue about 8 years out of so

-no ow/om drama besides her mom

3.75 STARS. Avery Rose is a newly discovered actress starring in her first movie. Griffin Stone is 27 years old he's the son of a famous actress and his Dad was a teacher. His Dad loved teaching and stayed with it even though his Mom wanted him to quit. He ended up being killed at a shootout at the school where he taught. Griffin always wanted to be a teacher too but his Mom was against it so he compromised and became a set teacher. He now has his own company, his employees teach minor actors on movie sets. When Griffin sees Avery for the first time he is blown away but then he realizes he will have to wait 3 months until she turns 18. He keeps his feelings to himself and bides his time until he can make his move. This was an okay story but I couldn't stand Avery, she was so damn immature I don't even know why he liked her. Even after she turned 18 she kept saying "I can't because of my mom", WTF ? grow up you dumb, twat !

* I received an arc for an honest review *

It may be a novella, but it still had the storyline and the drama just right, including the hot, dirty talking teacher that had me panting and flushing every time he opened his mouth. Jesus, I'm fanning myself just thinking about Griffin's hotness ;) Griffin and Avery may have the age difference but they had the connection and chemistry working for them. I loved Griffin's determination to make Avery's his the moment he sport her. He knew that even though he had to wait until she was 18, that no one would have her but him. I loved how patient and gentle he was towards her, and how protective and possessive he was when he sees someone looking at his Avery with lust. He was 27 years old and the owner of Stone Studio Teachers, that's where he first spotted his beautiful bright eye girl. Love his nickname for her :) So he set the path that would lead her to him and became her teacher. It might have killed him being that close and not make her his sooner but he did it because he didn't want to scare her with how he feels for her. I loved that even though he was clearly an alpha male, he still could give her sweet and gentle; perfect combination. I felt sorry for Avery because her mom was cruel, greedy and selfish woman that wouldn't allow her to do what she wanted to do, which was go to college, instead of being the actress her mother wanted her to be. Avery was 18 years old, but had a matureness to her that not many young girls would have at her age. Yet, she was naive in the sense that when she found herself having strong feelings towards Griffin, she didn't know how to proceed or act on it because her mother really did shelter her a lot (but only the mother benefited from that). I absolutely loved that when Avery's mother found out, Griffin put her in her place, when she tried to blackmail him with his relationship with Avery without realizing that he was actually the owner of the studio not simply a teacher. Loved that part, lol I felt sorry for Avery at the end of that because her mother left her but Griffin immediately took advantage to take care of her and move her into their home. At the end, her mother did her a favor for leaving, they didn't need that toxic entering into their relationship. Beautiful epilogue with two daughters and at the last sentence, she gets pregnant again with twins :)

I loved this short story! Griffin sees Avery on set of her first movie and instantly falls her her. Only problem is that she's 3 months shy of turning 18. He develops a plan that gets the girl! A steamy short read!
