Shadow Soldier Dana Marton
IN HIS PROTECTIVE CUSTODY

Despite the fringe benefits of watching over Nicola Barrington, her covert "bodyguard" itched to get back into the fray. Assigned to the elite Special Designation Defense Unit, Alex Rodriguez leaped into action after a disarming moment of smoldering attraction paved the way for a sniper's lethal ambush. Seeking cover from a spray of bullets, Alex and Nicola sped away with trigger-happy assailants hot on their trail. But the danger was far from over. The senator's daughter was a pawn in a diabolical international terrorist attack that could topple the U.S. government. Even with gunshots exploding around them and feverish passion racing through their veins, this Shadow Soldier wasn't about to let his country -- or his woman -- down!

SDDu Book 1

4 1/2 Stars! ~ Alex is an agent for the covert Special Designation Defense Unit; an elite group compiled of agents from all the US agencies; CIA, FBI, SEALs, Special Forces; the best of the best. The SDDU is Homeland Security's special weapon against terrorism. While recovering from his last mission, he's been assigned the duty of surveillance bodyguard. Nicola is the daughter of a US Senator, former US Ambassador to China. She's struggling to get her import trade business off the ground. Unknown to her, she's being targeted by her father's enemies. Luckily, for Nicola, Alex is there to foil a kidnapping attempt which sends them both on the run.

This is Ms. Marton's debut, and what a debut! Awesome! What a hero! Alex is the perfect soldier; a loner with no family to tie him down. He's out of his element when Nicola works her way under his skin. In the summer heat, Nicola's too big kevlar vest extends to the top of her thighs, making it look like she has nothing underneath. This drives poor Alex nuts! LOL I like Nicola. She handles the intense situations without panic. She's intelligent and brave, a perfect partner for Alex. Bravo to Ms. Marton on her first Intrigue!
