Shannon Dyer says

Round up to 4.5 stars. A charming glimpse of the sisters and the start of their earthside lives.

Earthbound

I am so thrilled that this came out. Yasmine hints at the events that brought the sisters earth side through most of her books b but I am happy to finally see the events that brought our saviors into our realm.

Amber says

Was rather shorter than I was expecting, but still adds great backstory to the D'Artigo sisters! Not surprised this finally got it's own novella. So happy to see how the girls meet Iris.

Crystal Hasemann says

This story may hold some of the keys to the main storyline.

Nicole Busillo says

Another Brilliant Masterpiece

Galenorn has done it again! This story was fantastic. I love reading about what happened when the sisters first came Earthside. I would love to read more stories between now and Witchling.

Jaida Ishmael says

It brought tears to my eyes...

To see where it all began, to see how the girls met those people who became so precious to them in the future, it was heartwarming to see.

Darcy says

This one is a throw-back special, shows how the sisters being told of their punishment and sent to to earth. It was fun to see them acclimate to Earth and things here. It makes you realize just how far they have come.

Robyn Jones says

Loved this soooooo much. It answered a lot of the questions i had about what happened when the sisters crossed over. I loved how they had to acclimate to the way things worked earthside. And it was good to see Henry again.

Debra Moore says

I have been enjoying this series for many years. It has strong, powerful woman in it and a great storyline. I especially liked this one since it went back to the very beginning and told the story of how the sisters came Earthside.

Review first published on My Blog

A prequel to the Otherworld series that tells of the sisters reason for being basically exiled to Earth and the start of their acclimation to life here. They are greeted by Chase and Iris is there to give them some basics and help Camille with the bookstore. It was lovely seeing Henry again and see Camille's reaction to her first espresso drink. Very nice seeing them back when they were still a bit innocent and naive of what was coming for them.
