Micah, Marcus, and Kingston were three childhood friends from Saginaw Michigan who had been through it all together. From the sandbox to the trap house, you name it, the three of them had more than likely done it. Now, they were all embarking on a new era in their lives, starting with the move to Detroit Michigan.

Their transition from thug life to the legit world came with its bumps and bruises, but through it all, the three friends were always there for one another. Micah had his issues with the love of his life, Lauren, who was also like his best friend. After he relocated to Detroit, Lauren hit Micah with the news of a baby coming aboard their rocky friendship.

Then there was Marcus, who couldn't prove to his in-laws that he was good enough for his woman, Harley. She was a spoiled rich kid who fell in love with a hustler. However, her parents had other plans for her life that didn't involve Marcus.

Kingston or King had his longtime girlfriend, Megan, whom he'd strung along for his own convenience until his last break truly broke what he and Megan had built since middle school. Not only were Micah, Marcus, and Kingston close friends, so were the women in their lives, including Micah's sister, Melanie, who had male issues herself.

Take a ride with this group of friends as they go through the trials and tribulations in their lives while looking for the one who is just right for them.

Awesome Read

This book was great from beginning to end! Filled with nothing but drama! King needed to get himself together. I was rooting for his relationship with Meghan as well as Lauren and Micah. Lauren and Micah need to get it together. He needs to learn the reasons behind why Lauren was scared. Lauren also needed to learn to let her guard down. Those two were clearly in love. Melanie had some things going on as well. Her secrets soon came to light. She had some explaining to do. I couldn't stand Isis. She was sneaky and very foul in so many ways. Marcus and Harley are good together. They just have the problem of her family. I don't care for her parents. They would rather her be with someone that is abusive then be with someone who actually makes her happy and loves her! So looking forward to book two because this drama is going on to be more interesting. Especially when Micah finds out the real about some things!!!

Wow

I really wished these couples could have got it together. Lauren had her issues with Micah but a lot of it could have been avoided if she had put on her big girl panties on and dealt with the situation. I can't wait for part two to see who that baby daddy is between Malicah and King.

toni zardies saysCrazy love

Pamela Johnston Ward saysAll up in this story

I was all up in this story from beginning to end. So much drama from the very start. I love Micah and Lauren. They really need to get their selves together. They both have some growing your do. It's obvious that they love each other. It's not just them. Marcus, Harley, King and Megan all have their own issues as well. They all need to get a grip. They are starting to make my head hurts. #UIP

Shekie Johnson saysOmg

Man this was a Good book. Dale is just crazy as he wanna be. Melanie should have just moved.. My mouth just hit the floor... And Poor Megan done got herself in a situation that she probably can't get out of. I hope that Marcus tell the truth to Harley before she finds out on her own. Lol this book is nervewrecking but in a good way. #UIP

Just right for me

Please let Mason be alright. I can't wait until Micah find out Isis started everything with Dale and Mel. Arnez need to look at things from Mel's point of view. Lauren needs to grow up. Haley needs to put her parents in their place. Marcus seem is a good guy. Malachi knows that Megan and King was still messing around. So I think that why he said what he said. King needs to let us know what Malachi is really about?
