Heather says

Another quick good read. Didn't realize it was part of a series with the book I read the day before. Bad part is that I don't have the other 4 books in the series.

Jodi says

Very light read. The "you only love me because I'm beautiful" crisis was a bit annoying. I also wanted to laugh that Mitch manufactured cow tippers. I don't know anything about farm machinery but is that an actual thing?? Sounds kind of silly.

Martha says

Lizbeth Stanton is working as bartender at the Thunder Canyon Resort in Montana. Mitchell Cates, a successful local businessman, is tongue-tied around beautiful women, but when Lizbeth's fiance breaks off their engagement, Mitch gets up the nerve to approach her. In an effort to get to know her better, he offers her a job as his assistant. Determined to turn over a new leaf, she accepts the job. To the surprise of both of them, she loves her new job and is very good at it. As time passes and they get to know each other better, they fall in love, but they both have insecurities that cause misunderstandings that they must each overcome.

I enjoyed reading this book. The characters were likeable, but I did think that they both needed to grow up a bit. I understood their insecurities, but I thought they both needed to just get over it. Overall, though, this was an enjoyable read.
